Family Connection

Children in our culture often know very little about dying, death, and eternal life. Take this opportunity to talk with your children about their thoughts, beliefs, and fears about death and dying.

In the Gospel this week, Jesus tells us that after we die, we will not need the same things we did when we were alive, but we will continue to have a relationship with God. You could use the example of a tree to help your children understand what Jesus tells us. When a tree is alive it needs water, soil, and sunlight. When the tree is used to make a table, a toy, or something else, it has a new purpose. The tree no longer needs water, soil, or sunlight. Read together the short form of the Gospel, Luke 20:27, 34-38. Tell your children about your hope and faith in the resurrection of the body and eternal life with God. Pray together for those in your family who have died and conclude by praying today's Psalm (17).

Thanksgiving Dinner Invitation

Thanksgiving is a poignantly mixed day of traditions and meals with family and friends. The other side of this great national holiday has a simple religious tone—alone at home without the resources or family to prepare a turkey and all the trimmings expected at a Thanksgiving meal.

Mindful of what Thanksgiving can mean for some, I wish to extend an invitation to our parish and school families who otherwise would find Thanksgiving Day difficult. For the second year, I will host a Thanksgiving gathering at the Father Hughes Center at 12:30 PM on November 24th, followed by dinner in Friendship Hall. There is no charge for your participation, nor is there an obligation to bring a food item. Simply come and join me and a few friends and share Thanksgiving Day with your St. Matthias family. Please call my assistant, Pat Ford, at 301-459-4814 x 201 to let me know that you plan to attend.
