The Third Sunday of Easter

On the Third Sunday of Easter, Luke's Gospel has the very human story of Jesus appearing to the disciples after the Resurrection, inviting them to touch his hands and feet to see that he is real. He ate with them and “he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures.

Saturday is the Feast of Saint Mark, Evangelist.

In our first readings from Acts of the Apostles this week, we read of one of the earliest martyrs, Stephen and of Philip converting an Ethiopian slave along the road. Also this week is the story of Saul, persecutor of Christians being blinded and then healed by Ananias in the name of Jesus. The week ends with Peter traveling the region and healing.

The gospel for this week is from Chapter 6 of John's Gospel on Jesus as the “Bread of Life.” Like so many stories in this gospel, Jesus teaches from one layer of understanding to another, taking us deeper into understanding his gift of himself to us in the Eucharist. Jesus says, “Do not work for food that perishes but for the food that endures for eternal life.” “The bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.” “I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst.” “I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my Flesh for the life of the world.” “Whoever eats my Flesh and drinks my Blood remains in me and I in him.” This marvelous dialogue ends with this exchange with his disciples: “Jesus then said to the Twelve, 'Do you also want to leave?' Simon Peter answered him, 'Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. We have come to believe and are convinced that you are the Holy One of God.'”

Prayer for the Third Sunday of Easter:

Loving God,
We rejoice now in the glory of your resurrection,
celebrating your life with Easter joy.
We are filled with confident hope
and feel our spirits renewed within us.
Our hearts burn with a new depth of love
as we see your light shine in the darkness.
Lead us, Lord. We are your people.

May we spend this day praising your glory and being filled with confident hope as you hold out your wounded hands to us with joy.

Faith Direct: The Lord is risen! As Christ's disciples, we are called to go forth and spread the good news of His Resurrection. Our parish's many ministries are examples of how many of you answer that call. Our ministries require not only gifts of time and talent, but also of financial help. Please prayerfully consider supporting St. Matthias the Apostle with electronic donations through Faith Direct. You can sign up online at www.faithdirect.net using our church code MD41 or mail in an enrollment form from the parish office.

A Stewardship Moment: The disciples in today's Gospel came to know Jesus in the breaking of the bread. When we share what we have with those who are in need, we too, will discover Jesus in our midst.

From the Administrator

Let me share with you my own excitement and pride that filled my heart on the Easter weekend. Why? Because there were so many “prayer-ers” who attended Masses on those two days. Can you believe that you exceeded the 700 people attendance at one particular Mass – Easter Sunday’s 10:30 AM Mass!! We should be thankful the Fire Marshall did not pay us a visit! I am so grateful that the Sunday evening Mass has crossed the 100 attendees mark with some regularity. This comes without any publicity in the POST or the PG County Gazette or the Catholic Standard. In short our population is growing. This is wonderful but it also signals the need that we look at some parish obligations that have not been met. In particular I have seen an encouraging number of younger parishioners ... teens and early 20s. This is marvelous but the reality faces me that we do not have a Youth Minister nor a Youth Ministry Program. I have been following the weekly financial reports which you also can read in the bulletin. It seems our population has grown but our giving does not reflect any particular increase. As a matter of fact there has been a slight decrease. At the moment I am considering how we might be able to increase our income without it become a major burden on the people of the parish.

Items of Note

The Academy Spring Musical: The Academy is hosting three performances of the Spring Musical “Uncle Phil’s Diner”: Friday, April 24th and Saturday, April 25th at 6:30 pm; and Sunday, April 26th at 12:00 pm. There will be a dinner style meal (hot dog and hamburger) in which the actors and actresses will be serving. It is set in the 1950’s with old Rock and Roll songs. Tickets will not be available at the door. For more information, contact the school at 301-577-9412.

2015 Annual Jubiliarian Mass: Cardinal Donald Wuerl will celebrate the annual Jubilarian Mass honoring couples married 25, 30, 35, 40, 45, 50 and 51+ years on Sunday, June 21st at 2:00 pm at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception. Call the parish office to register. Names of Jubilarians should be submitted to the parish office by Monday, April 13th.

Weekend Retreat: A retreat specially planned for men and women facing serious physical illness will be held at the Dominican Retreat House in McLean, VA. From May 22-24, 2015. A team of doctors, nurses, priests, sisters and helpers will be present around the clock. Scheduling allows plenty of time for rest and reflection. There is no fee to attend this retreat. It is a non-smoking weekend. Registration closes May 12, 2015. If you have an interest in attending, please call the Dominican Retreat House ASAP at 703-356-4243 in order to register. For question about the retreat you may call Doug Sebek at 703-477-5681.
